

Mansfield Today

Mansfield's leading paper

25p

Local Mansfield resident John Duckett is recovering after a revolutionary operation at Kings Mill Hospital. John had a problem with his and he was diagnosed as having . Fortunately for John medical technology has advanced in the past 100 years. Staff at Kings Mill had the very best in modern technology. When John's condition was first suspected the consultant used some of the most advanced technology on him. John was tested with this is used to

It works by

Once his condition was diagnosed, John was able to receive treatment to help make him better. The treatment included

Speaking about the consultants at Kings Mill Hospital, John said "

Reporter: _____

